

Against The Wall

I can see the night is over now
I cannot see the angry man
Beside you anymore
I cannot take care of me
I cannot hide behind a tree
I feel it's all in silence now

The way I am
The way I am
I was never reaching
Never reaching farer
And I was never reaching far away
Sometimes I am feeling small
Against the wall

I can feel the chains are falling down
Pure taste of freedom under Zaykon's crown
Creating virtual reality
My Universe is a computer I dare to see
Let me program a new identity

Is this the key?
Is this the key?

But sometimes I am feeling small
Against the wall
Against the wall
