

Passionate suffering

Heading to the animal shelter, saving your buddy to become elder within your immediate vicinity, to receive warmth and love, requires, as mentioned above, the need for saving. Born from cruelty.

To hand off your pet, bind it to the side of the road, because you can't afford the vet probably stems from gloat.
Either own, being a pitifull glutton, or the big man pressing too hard on the money printer button.

Everything pretty, you see, is birthed from an ocean, sometimes just a sea of vicious torment without apparent end.
Yet all that is lovely and pretty comes time after time after the dirtiest nitty gritty
