

My tears are dry

Only in heaven is peace

I don't believe

Only tonight

The stars won't shine

Even with my eyes

I can't realize

Where does this pain come from?

I'm flying, I'm falling

I'm freezing

I feel so alone

It's gonna be forever unknown

I'm praying for freedom

In my own kingdom

And suddenly my tears are dry

I'm not asking why

I won't break, I won't break

Even if it's too much to take

Im flying I'm falling

I'm freezing

I'm reaching for something

Lost my fairy wing

Lost my daily spring

And suddenly my tears are dry

I'm not asking why

As long as you shine

I'll be fine

And as new reason appears

That kills the fear

Helps me to go on

Until I've won ...
