

Children's Laughter

The small face seems to burst;
As you might have dropped
Just a funny word
Or a joke, perhaps.

The long fair hair plays
Into the smiling mouth,
The little teeth with their gaps
Make you think of pearls.

Her bright tinkling leaps
Over to you and
Joining at last -
You may count decades more:
There is two children's laughter.
