

Loneliness

Moodulation to sadness

Moodulation zu Traurigkeit

Is it a feeling or a state?

Is it attitude or fate?

You feel like noone cares for you and all your feeling turning blue.

There is a fist pressing your heart
a claw tearing your soul apart.

Have you felt lonely in a crowd?
When all you wanted is to shroud?

Have you felt lonely in a dream?
Then you woke up and start to scream?

Have you felt lonely for so long?
Your soul is singing the same song?

You see no end you see no way,
don't even know to whom to say?

Better say welcome to this fate,
cause everyone will feel this state.

As long as all don't care for others
There are no sisters and no brothers.
