

Sleepingsong - Schlaflied

Hush my little baby, you mustn't cry.
See dear son of mine the stars are shining so bright.
Hush my little child and look to the sky.
The Moon is rising its journey.

Listen to me my little baby.
This is my lullaby that's I'm singing only for you.
Hear my dearest child.
The wind is blowing you in Sandman's dreamland soon.

Hush my little baby, don't cry.
All life is sleeping now.
Hush dear child of mine.
Close your eyes and fall asleep too.

Dear son.
I wish you good dreams.
Good night my beautiful prince.
Sleep well until the next morning.

Hush my little baby you mustn't cry.
I will be always by you.
Sleep, dear child of mine.
In my Arms you will be okay.
