

Gone

"Hey, where are you my good friend?
Surely you have traveled far.
Can you tell me where you went?
To which land and to which star?

A lot of wonders you must have seen!
A lot of people you must know!
In many places you must have been!
Many pictures you must have to show!"

"Surely, surely, you are right.
I have traveled, traveled a lot.
I've seen the darkness and the light and now I'm in the land of God.

I will tell you a great story.
I will tell you where I went.
But not yet – I must say 'sorry' -
First life your story to the end."
