

Candle on fire

Melting away like a candle on fire, just by touching the heat, listening to the natural beat,
I am not a liar.

Just to lie on top or behind, shows me the right direction to melt,
to create a way,
to drop my mind.

My nose so close,
every breath is aware,
smoke it every moment,
this drug i am not gonna share.

Every movement feels so alive, the mixed up breath,
feeds the fire,
mixed up eyes let me dive.

Your are the light,
And i am melting under your heat, do it slow,
we are connected, from the top to the feet.

You are the fire,
I am the candle,
let`s melt together,
without loosing the handle.
