

Silver Shepherd - Walk Against The Flow (feat. DCF) (Lyrics)

Lord silence the storm in me give me your eyes to see Oh your eyes to see that it will be okay And please keep all my troubles, all my sufferings at bay

Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
Lord help me to walk on waters to find that which really matters oh all that matters is your love for me it's alright to cry, to fall, to laugh and just to be oh all that matters is your love to me it's alright to cry, to fall, to laugh and just to be

Reach out your hands in the roaring oceans
And help me to be like Peter, set my feet in motion Make me move, help me to go To don't go under in the crowd walk against the flow flow

flow
flow walk against the flow

flow
flow
don't go under in the crowd walk against the flow

flow
flow
flow
walk against the flow

flow
flow
don't go under in the crowd

walk against the flow

Lord, you never let me drown

Give me strength to make your name known

To make you great is all I really want to do

To show the world that what you say is always true

Reach out your hands in the roaring oceans

And help me to be like Peter, set my feet in motion

To don't go under in the crowd walk against the flow
