

Can't forget it

I guess you're alone
Because your window is Open and music fills The house.
Our Argument was harmless but you want to be alone
And yet i Miss you right now
My Heart is crying because its begging for forgiveness.
It loves you

Can't forget it
But wants to forgive
You want it too
But you need time
Just forgetting it would be easier to start over.
Can't forget it
But forgetting and forgiving
Are often not The Same

See me Out The window
Wave me Up
Want to Talk
I Walk Up to you
You Just kiss me Like that
Just Tell me
Lets forget and start over
Show me you mean serious
And i Love you more every day
