

Nobody can save me

I'm standing on the cliff/
And dance with my demons/
A storm is coming/
And only I can see it/
Dark clouds inside me/
The sun is hiding/
I'm spreading my arms/
And lose the ground under my feet/

I want to jump/
Fly in another world/
I want to jump/
I'm feeling wrong here/
There is no place for me/
And nobody can save me/

I'm looking inside the deep/
Hanging on the edge/
Nobody who will save me/
I capitulate/
And I'm asking me/
Is there somebody who cares/
But no one has time for me/
When I'm screaming for help/

I want to jump/
Fly in another world/
I want to jump/
I'm feeling wrong here/
There is no place for me/
And nobody can save me/

I'm falling in the deep/
It's too late to turn around/
The first time I feel so free/
And hit on the ground
