Intro

I have something to tell you

Verse 1

Listen to me,
I know how you feel, the pain is not visible.
Your feelings are not dead.
Look at me. Years ago,
I was just as broken as you.
I'll tell you. The story from me

Mom filled oceans with her tears, because of me.
Sorry for the probs and the nights without sleep.
You had to give me up!
You didn't want to see me anymore.
I was 18, broken spirit.
Today I know, that it was your best decision.
then you go.
Hard times, building strong womans.
I don't lie.
Mom, your scars will never heal.
But I promise
tears will never be a part of your life.
Then your smile is my drug
the only thing that's me hight.
My name will never soil you again.
Thanks for your trust..
Nobody can break me today.

When love calls me, i looking away.
people used me.
My soul was stained.
At the end,
The traitor was my friend.
Faking Hands,
"this crew" had my back....

Was the same.
"friends" handed me their knife,
Said we we're family.
Trusted them.
Pressed the gun on my head.
behind my back.

This is the difference between us.
Rats cannot fight, there always run.
I'm a wolf, howling alone.
I feel better but i trust anyone .
My back is against the wall.
My head are broke, and i need nobody.
I live alone.
Because
my dog are the only one.
A cold snout is loyalty as a handshake. Remember that.

Nobody can take my freedom.
I stand here, I made gold out of shit.
Am my own fan,
look like a queen, fuck of
My dreams are my goals.
My home is my sanctuary.
I learned from mom:
Lower your head in front of persons. .
Respect yourself and wait for the right moment
I will never give up again.
Because my smile is my strength.
I promise
I never stop chasing my dreams.
My heart bedding long time ,
Today I understand, what mom meant back then..

Chourse 1
You can't find a place to be happy with rats!
You must seek happiness in yourself.

Thanks for the hard time.
Be thankful you survived. .

Verse 2

they're not real friends!

Mummy, why?
Why didn't I listen to you?
How did it happen that I lost myself?

Why didn't I believe you?
It was a bad time,
Mom, you were my enemy then.
At home on the street,
Breaking rules with rats.
Do you hear what I say?!
Didn't sleep at night.
Black eyes, snowy nose.
Criminal at 18,
I know the inside of cells.
Was always on the road ,

I know the inside of cells.
I was lost then, no plan how to proceed.
Chaos had found a place in my head,
and no one heard my silent cries for help.
I was not stupid.
Today I know that my iQ is over 120.
12 years, it was the first ad.
The first ad for mom.
It was not the last.
At 14, I was caught for the first time.
Damage to property, had to let out my anger.

I liked fights.
Whether with one man or with three women's .
When the switch flipped, I was another.
From brass knuckles to manslaughter.
It was a butterfly, so beautiful to look at,
my skills were horny.
My own companion stabbed me in the body with my colorful darling.
The butterfly was my favorite.

The police visited us.
You were so helpless.
I was so young.
Criminal streak in my blood.
Couldn't cope with reality, was sensitive and got hurt.
The police Trashed my room, found nothing they wanted. Was 10 steps ahead of them.
Wasn't afraid of the officers.
I was more scared when dad sleeping on the couch.
I remember it like it was yesterday.
It has passed.
I fought for myself!
I did it. My scars will heal
I'll never stand between blue lights and rats again.
Let my tears
flow, and my heart is open.
The past is over.
I'll let it go, I'll keep going.
The present is here,
and my happiness is in my hands.
I listen to my heart and do what it tells.
Because I know I can achieve anything. So don't give up.
Are you listening? 'Cause I know how you feel.. .. Believe me .. .
You are strong ,and can do it
Don't fool yourself about what others think . Turn the game around,
then you end up laughing.
You are not alone,
I'm
