

Disdain for Vermin

What vicious vile creatures
are the people known as Germans.
What a pitifull excuse
will they use?
I wish to disembark
from the planet that houses such dreadful mark.

Rich and mighty
plastering mines and weapons within foreign society.
The economy needs to roll
since certain people bankroll
the elected officials.
A puny gang of criminals.

I grew up in a Germany
in which foreigner is as derogatory
as alien is in the States.
Yet noone sees our cultural baits.
Sit on the tracks with the others
Yell "Train!" but noone bothers.

No matter the number
no matter the cost
just remember
Germans got rich off Pax Americana.
In the western world, free trade, the coast
keep it clear kill any that come near.

What vicious vile creatures live in this place
that is so foreign and alien to anyone that sees the pace
Monster hidden within fine clothing.
What the eye can't see
is character and every stranger dying, on land and sea.

Kill the ones that want their people to profit off their ground
Kill the ones that want no foreign army patrolling their ground
Kill the ones that look different
Kill the ones that come from afar
Kill the ones that flee from war,
Kill the ones that flee from ecological disaster.
Just protect these old that hoard money, they're different.

They guard the GDP, they provide the most important element.
Money.

I have a thousand reasons to ram myself into the floor.
So much anger at having no power, being poor
in terms of resources
in terms of experience
to help those needing help
to aid those who'm we brought unrest in this only world.

So Kill! Kill! Kill!
Incarcerate
that's what Germans do well Incinerate
documents aswell.
Keep the bill
peasant.
